

ROBERT G. HARR, III

IBTTA IMMEDIATE PAST PRESIDENT

Robert G. Harr, III has been Executive Director of the Thousand Islands Bridge Authority (TIBA) since January 2003. Prior he was Deputy Executive Director and Director of Administration & Operations. For the past 16 years, Rob has been responsible for the development, management and implementation of the annual operations and capital programs, as well as the general management and oversight of the day-to-day operations of the International Bridge System and Boldt Castle/Heart Island tourist attractions. Currently Rob is President of the U.S./Canada Public Border Operators Association, past Director and Chair of the IBTTA Foundation and Leadership Academy Board of Regents and Thousand Islands International Regional Tourism Development Corporation and the “Capital Corridor” Trade & Tourism Initiative. Rob served as President of IBTTA in 2013.

Prior to joining TIBA, Rob was the Director of Human Resources for the George Junior Republic a residential treatment center for children and youth located in Freeville, NY. Rob has been active in public service holding two elected positions within his community, Justice of the Peace and Township Supervisor.

Rob has BS degrees in Business Administration and Economics from University of New England, Biddeford ME. He lives in Sackets Harbor, NY with his wife Susan.